Evening Communion

This evening, 4th August in Carlops Church at 6pm. What communion means to me.

A picnic and open air Celtic Service in praise of God – in all creation and in all our lives

This afternoon at 3pm we will be holding an outdoor all age service followed by a picnic in the grounds of the old Newlands Church ruins. Meet in the church car park and bring tea, juice and some cake and biscuits to share, as well as picnic chairs or a rug. Let's hope for good weather, but if it's raining we will meet in the church. For more information contact Jean Howat

Summer Fair 17th of August 2.00.-4.30

We would still welcome offers of help for the stalls.

It would be very helpful to have donations in advance for the hamper prize for the treasure hunt, the tombola, and prize draw. These can be brought to church or contact Kate Dykes who can arrange for them to be collected.

Donations for the Baking & home produce stall, Garden produce, and Books and DVDs can be brought to the Graham Institute on the morning or be collected in advance.

"How Well to you Know your village " quiz sheets are available in Church or at the Post office for £1 a sheet you can always take more than one and encourage your friends neighbours to have a go.

We are hoping that this year we are due a nice sunny Fair Day after the last two so if anyone can lend a gazebo for stalls out on the green can you let Kate know.

Food Banks.

The Linkage continues to collect items for a month then takes them to the Food Banks in Peebles and Penicuik. This week's needs are as general but with an emphasis on lentils, tinned meats, coffee, sponge puddings and toilet rolls. More information on the Banks can be found on the web. Warm thank you to all who contribute
